A Look at Today's Game . . .

The Tigers will definitely have their hands full today as they try to add a good Omaha Indians team to their list of victories this year. A win today will lift the Tigers above the .500 mark and insure them of remaining tied for the lead in the Plains Division of the RMAC. All six teams in that division are tied with 1-1 records going into today's action.

In facing the Indians, the Tigers will have to contend with their All-America candidate runningback Phil Wise. Wise is strong and fast and is a threat in both the rushing and receiving departments. He leads the conference in tandem offense which includes both rushing and receiving.

Another Indian that will keep the Bengal defense busy this afternoon is quarterback Rocco Gonnella. This senior from Syracuse, N.Y. achieved nearly 2,000 yards in total offense last year and has thrown for 20 touchdowns in the past two years.

The Black and Gold defense will have to keep awake for number 45 today also. That number belongs to fullback Bill Walker, and this hard runner adds a great deal to the Indian offense.

The Omaha defense is big and should give the Tiger triple option a real test. The defensive secondary of Omaha is young, but FHS scouts report that they are a talented crew.

Because of a league rule that prevents a player from performing in the next game after he has been ejected from a game, the Tigers will have some new personnel in starting roles on defense. Gary Riedy will be at a defensive tackle and Bob Levitt will start at a defensive end.

Bruce Hawley, a freshman from Phillipsburg, will start at the free safety spot today and Rick Hahn will move to a cornerback. Hawley is also the Bengals' new backup quarterback due to a neck injury that has sidelined Mike Hufstetler for the season.

Tiger tailback Tommy Evans carries the ball against Emporia last week.

Welcome Alumni Homecoming 1970

It is with real pleasure that I take this opportunity to welcome you back to the college. My wife and I will be looking forward to meeting as many of you as possible during the day. I also hope that you will take every opportunity to visit the campus and will stop by to see me when you do.

This is a fine college, made that way by able and dedicated faculty members, staff, administrators, and students past and present. To enable the college to continue its development and to permit it to expand into new areas, we will need the continued support of all who are a part of the college community. Your presence here today tells me that you do feel a part of the college, and I hope that you will continue to do so in the future.

Sincerely yours,

John W. Gustad

Five Tiger Coeds Vie for Homecoming Queen

Paulette Arnold

Stella Howell

Yvonne Manning

Sue Shaw

Leta Wheeler

Amid the Fort Hays State Homecoming celebration, five royalty finalists stand — the identity a secret until last night.

Finalists, chosen from 11 original contestants in a student election, and their sponsors are Paulette Arnold, Colby senior, Custer Hall; Stella Howell, Columbus, S.C. junior, Wiest Hall; Anita Yvonne Manning, Jetmore junior, Fort Hays Veterans Club; Sue Shaw, Parsons senior, McMIndes Hall; and Leta Wheeler, Wa-Keeney junior, Delta Zeta.

Homecoming finds this year's candidates all in the education field of study at FHS and each with a list of activities or honors to her credit.

Paulette Arnold, an elementary education major, has concentrated her out-of-class activity on drama. She was a member of Little Theatre and the cast of last year's production "Philadelphia, Here I Come." Paulette is also a member of the Catholic Student Center, Student Education Association, and Associated Women Students. At Custer Hall this year, Paulette works as a resident assistant.

"Right now I'm floating on cloud nine, and I just hope I'll be down by Homecoming," is Stella Howell's description of her reaction to candidacy.

Stella termed the initial nomination as an honor, "but then when I was one of the top five, it was just like being queen as far as I was concerned."

The South Carolina elementary education major includes History Club, French Club, Student Senate and AWS in her school life. This year Stella is serving as AWS treasurer, Student Senate representative and Homecoming committee member.

"It's a big jump from South Carolina," so Stella's parents won't be able to attend Homecoming activities. "But my brother will be here from Fort Carson, Colo.; so that will be enough."

Beauty contests are not new to Anita Yvonne Manning, a special education major. Leader Lass and Furlough Queen candidate honors in her freshman year, along with first runner-up position in the Colorado Wheat Queen contest and the Miss Baca County title of 1969 are among her awards.

The third finalist lists dancing as her hobby. Graduation and teaching in the special education field are her future plans. Besides expressing excitement over her candidacy, Yvonne predicts a good year for Homecoming.

Sue Shaw believes 1970 will be the best Homecoming year ever. She noted "more excitement in the dorm than ever before."

AWS, Tiger Paws, Memorial Union public relations and forums committee, and inter-hall council take up Sue's time, as she plans for a teaching career and marriage in June.

Leta Wheeler, also a elementary and special education major, could find only one word to explain her reaction to her finalist honor—"shock."

Active in Orchesis and Delta Zeta sorority, Leta makes her mark this year as Tiger Deb leader. Other honors include runner-up in the Miss McMIndes pageant, and the Miss Ellis County crown.

She named dancing and horses as her main interests and hopes for a future as a teacher.

NAIA Fourth Place Trophy

Fort Hays State College grabbed 82 points to take fourth place trophy in the first National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics All-Sports competition.

FHS obtained the honor by winning the cross country title and placing highly in the indoor outdoor and track category. Accepting the trophy on behalf of FHS will be Athletic Director Cade Suran.

The first place title was won by Eastern Michigan University. The Hurons literally ran away from all competition by scoring a total of 222 points to second place Eastern New Mexico's 93.

Michigan gained its huge total by taking first place honors in indoor and outdoor track, swimming and diving, and baseball. They also placed second in cross country and gymnastics and seventh in tennis.

All competition was sponsored by the NAIA Sports Information Director's Association. Points were awarded to those schools who finished in the top eight places in the 15 sports which are sponsored by the NAIA.

Eastern New Mexico State accepted second place by placing in the top eight in cross country, basketball, outdoor track, and golf.

Barely ahead of FHS was Eastern Illinois with 85 points. The Panthers won the NAIA soccer title and also placed in the top eight in cross country and swimming.

Some 82 schools scored points in the competition. This means that one sixth of the NAIA's membership of 510 schools finished in the top eight of the 15 national championships.

'Busch' Gross Award To Outstanding Athlete

The highest honor a Fort Hays State College athlete can win during his tenure here is the Paul (Busch) Gross award. FHS's outstanding athlete for the 1969-70 school year will win that award this afternoon.

The nominee is selected by a committee on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship and athletic achievement.

The award is given in honor of the late "Busch" Gross, who devoted a lifetime of service to Fort Hays State College. Gross was first an athlete at FHS, then both basketball coach and athletic director at FHS from 1930 until 1946, then continued on as athletic director only until his death in 1964.

Last year's winner was Paul Simmons, two-year football and baseball letterman from Atchison. Simmons set many school records and earned a birth on the All-NAIA District 10 football squad in his senior year. He led the defense with 117 tackles at his linebacking spot and led the 1969 baseball squad with 11 runs batted in.

Fred Andregg took the coveted award in 1968 for his fine basketball accomplishments. He was a native of Hoxie, Kansas.

In 1967 Robert Johnson, a four-year letterman in football and track, obtained the trophy. Johnson is now head track coach and assistant football coach at Concordia High School.

Don Lakin, former NAIA All-America track and cross country performer from Pawnee Rock accepted the 1966 honor.

Abilene's Clark Engle was named the 1965 award winner. He was a four-year football and track letterman and is now General Director of the YMCA at Garden City.

Sam McDowell, the highest scoring basketball player ever at FHS, won the 1964 honor. He is now practicing veterinary medicine in his hometown of Smith Center.

Another basketball great, Herb Stange, won the Busch Gross award in 1963. Stange, who hailed from Sterling, is now a Mutual Funds salesman in Beloit.

The 1962 presentation of the award was a unique one. Duplicate crowns went to Dean Larson of Ada and Kent Bauer of Pawnee Rock. Larson carved his fame in basketball and Bauer proved to be one of the best pole vaulters in the history of FHS.

Lyle Wingate, teacher and basketball coach at Shawnee Mission, was the 1961 recipient for his participation in track and basketball at FHS.

The 1960 award went to Darrell Hildebrand, now head track coach at North Platte, Neb., Junior College. He was a track and football star at FHS.

Ron Miller was the first recipient of the Busch Gross award. He is now a range conservationist at Mission, S.D. His specialty was football and he hailed from Elmo.

In four weeks Fort Hays State's cross country team will be trying for its third consecutive NAIA championship. The Tiger harriers are led by junior letterman Alvin Penka who was named All-America because of his 12th place finish in the national meet a year ago.

This year's team consisting of four lettermen and nine freshmen has compiled a 2-0 dual meet record so far this season. The young squad has also placed second in the Wichita Invitational and the Southwest Missouri Invitational. In the Oklahoma Jamboree, FHS finished third behind last year's Big Eight Conference champion Kansas University and Oklahoma State University.

FHS's head coach Alex Francis, who will be head coach of the Pan American Games at Cali, Columbia in South America this year, is pleased with his boys, their running and their times. He feels that they will be in contention for the NAIA title even though they are young.

Another big event in the cross country schedule every year is the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference meet. The Tiger runners are defending champions in this important meet which takes place in two weeks. Francis believes his runners are improving with every meet and he hopes that they will be at a peak just in time for the event.

Only one harrier on this year's squad is a senior and will be lost by graduation this spring. Steve Boehmer, who has been a member of the Tiger squad for four years, has been one of the leading runners every season. Boehmer's latest accomplishment was a seventh place finish at the Southwest Missouri Invitational which was first for FHS.

TIGER BASKETBALL will depend heavily this year on Daryl Stockstill, above, to improve on their 14-9 record of last year. Stockstill, an All-RMAC and All-District 10 NAIA pick last season, was the Tiger's leading scorer and rebounder. Five other returning lettermen join Stockstill as the team prepares for its season opener against Kearney (Neb.) State on Dec. 1.

Gymnastics and Wrestling Schedules

Expecting more returning gymnasts than ever, including nine lettermen, coach Ed McNeil waits anxiously for the upcoming season. "If they perform as they have in the past," said McNeil, "We should have a pretty good season . . . If things go as I expect, we could do quite well at the NAIA meet in the spring."

The Tiger Debs

ONE OF THE MORE entertaining aspects of a Fort Hays State football game is the half-time show put on by the Tiger Debs. The Debs depend upon WaKeeney junior Leta L. Wheeler to create their routines and direct their performances. She inherited this leadership after Karen Johnson, creator of the Tiger Debs three years ago, graduated last spring.

The Fort Hays State Marching Band

FORT HAYS STATE'S Marching Band is another top attraction at half-time of this year's home football games. The band, under the direction of Lyle Dille, associate professor of music, is comprised of 80 male and female instrumentalists.

Fight Song and Anthem

Homecoming is for the alumni and all of the activities and programs for the undergraduates can't change that. Homecoming is that one time each year when the graduate of Fort Hays State can return to the campus and greet his old friends and teachers and relive many of the events that made the four years that he spent in college unchallenged as the most eventful of his life.

No matter how cynical a person becomes in his life, the sound of the fight song and anthem must bring some warmth to him and send some chills down his spine. While sentimentality is not vogue in the world of the '70's, the College Anthem must still evoke something close to sentiment.

As the years go along, the memory gets rusty and for that reason the words to both the Tiger Fight Song and the College Anthem are printed here. It is hoped that everyone at the stadium today, be he student, alum, visitor or faculty, will join in the singing of both of these songs. The sound of 10,000 voices singing together can only add to the excitement of Homecoming 1970.

TIGER FIGHT SONG:

Go you, Hays Tigers,
Fight right through that line.
With your colors flying
We will cheer you all the time,
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go you, Hays Tigers,
Fight for victory.
Fight for the fame of our fair name,
Go Hays Tigers
Win this game!

THE COLLEGE ANTHEM:

On the plains of Western Kansas
Stands a school we all love well.
'Twas built by the toil of our fathers;
To its glory our voices swell.
Hail to old Fort Hays State!
Let your voices ring.
Praise for the Black and Gold
We will ever sing.
Long may our valor last
Through the future days,
Hon'ring and praising
Dear Fort Hays.
In the years that lie before us
We foresee our land's many needs.
Through the efforts of new generations
We'll go on to more noble deeds.

CHEVY'S NEW LITTLE CAR IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Vega 2300 is here at last.

We'd have brought it out sooner, but you know how it is. We've got a lot riding on this little car and we wanted it to be right, really right, before turning it over to you.

Now we're ready.

And you were wise to wait.

Because now you can buy what we at Chevrolet have come to modestly believe is the best little car in the world.

We don't expect this ad to convince you.

We expect the car to, though.

Vega. The little car that does everything well. Look into it.
